Concluding Prayer Assembly Prays Together

I thank You, my heavenly Father, through Jesus Christ, Your dear Son, that You have kept me this night from all harm and danger; and I pray that You would keep me this day also from sin and every evil, that all my doings and life may please You. For into Your hands I commend myself, my body and soul, and all things. Let Your holy angel be with me, that the evil foe may have no power over me. Amen. (Morning Prayer of Martin Luther)

Servants of the Word

Professor Peter Nafzger	Preacher
Seminarian Aaron Bird	Liturgist
Seminarian Christian Einertson	Organist

All are invited to a concert in the chapel this evening performed by the Valparaiso University Chorale. The Chorale is among the top Lutheran collegiate choirs in the United States and is dedicated to performing works that celebrate the University's Lutheran heritage. The choir is also noted for the performance of significant contemporary works in their original languages and for the performance of music expressing multicultural perspectives. Under the direction of Christopher M. Cock, the 48-voice ensemble maintains an active annual schedule of touring, performing, and recording. The Chapel is the second-to-last stop on their spring tour. Tickets are $10 per person (those under 18 are free) and available for purchase at the door.

Laudamus, fresh off its quarter break tour, will offer a concert, along with Pro Musica Sacra, on Sunday at 3 pm at Peace Lutheran Church, Lemay. Please come and support our seminary choirs.

Fasting Discipline: For those interested in engaging some form of a discipline of fasting during Lent Dean Burrenson offers a short service at noon in the chapel on Wednesdays and Fridays for strengthening in the fast.
