Salutation and Prayer of the Day

Psalm  Psalm 31:19-34

The assembly prays the psalm in unison. The Gloria Patri will be omitted

19 Oh, how abundant is your goodness, which you have stored up for those who fear you
and worked for those who take refuge in you,
in the sight of the children of mankind!

20 In the cover of your presence you hide them
   from the plots of men;
you store them in your shelter
   from the strife of tongues.

21 Blesséd be the LORD,
   for he has wondrously shown his steadfast love to me
when I was in a besieged city.

22 I had said in my alarm,
   “I am cut off from your sight.”
But you heard the voice of my pleas for mercy
   when I cried to you for help.

23 Love the LORD, all you his saints!
   The LORD preserves the faithful
   but abundantly repays the one who acts in pride.

24 Be strong, and let your heart take courage,
   all you who wait for the LORD!

The cantor will sing the refrain first in Swahili. The assembly will then sing the refrain in Swahili and the verses in English.
The assembly is encouraged to sing in harmony.
2 Come to teach us, come to nourish those who believe in Christ. Bless the faithful, may they flourish, strengthened by grace unpriced.

3 Guide our thinking and our speaking done in your holy name. Motivate all in their seeking, freeing from guilt and shame.

4 Not mere knowledge, but discernment, nor rootless liberty; turn disquiet to contentment, doubt into certainty.

5 Keep us fervent in our witness; unswayed by earth's allure. Evergrant us zealous fitness, which you alone assure.
Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world, have mercy on us, have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world, have mercy on us, have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world,

grant, us peace, grant us peace.
The Lord’s Supper will be distributed at six stations, instead of the altar rails, on each side of the chancel, two on the chancel level, two on the nave floor, and one in each transept. Please proceed to whichever station is available on your side as you approach the altar.

In Preparation for Communion

To Our Guests:

The Lord’s Supper is celebrated on our campus in the confession and glad confidence that our Lord, as He says, gives not only bread and wine, but His very body and blood to eat and drink for the forgiveness of sin. In joyful obedience to the clear teaching of our Lord Jesus those are invited to His table who trust His words, repent of all sin, and set aside any refusal to forgive and love as He forgives and loves us. They show forth His death until He comes. Because Holy Communion is a confession of the faith which is confessed at this altar, any who are not yet instructed, in doubt, or who hold a confession differing from that of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod and so are unable to receive the Sacrament are invited to meditate on God’s Word in the distribution hymns and pray for the day when divisions will have ceased.

Notes Regarding Communion
• The campus Lord’s Supper is sponsored and hosted by the The Lutheran Church of Webster Gardens and Pastors Joel Christiansen and Brian King.
• The bread was baked by Nils Niemeier.
• The Chapel’s Red Wine is from Montelle Winery, Augusta, Missouri and the White Wine is from Blumenhof Winery, Dutzow, Missouri.
• When receiving the cup to partake of Christ Jesus’ blood, please place your hand on the cup in some way to assist the server in guiding it to your mouth. Depending upon how those distributing the cup are holding it, you can either take hold of the cup at the base on the bottom OR on the stem of the chalice OR at the bowl itself on the upper part. By doing so you will assist the server and help to prevent any unwelcome spillage.
• The Reliquary (unconsecrated, additional bread) will be distributed after the service in the narthex if there is sufficient quantity. You are invited to take a piece with you.
• If illness or other extenuating circumstances lead you not to drink wine directly from the chalice, you may intinct the bread by dipping it into the chalice.

Private Confession and Absolution
Check SemNet to see when Chaplain Sieveking will offer confession at the altar.

Notes on the Service

The services for the Thirtieth Annual Symposium focus on the theme of the symposium—(Re)forming the Devotional Life. Today’s service, following the structure of LSB Divine Service Setting One, includes various opportunities for devotional reflection on life in the Word Jesus Christ. These opportunities include confession and absolution, psalmody, silence, hymnody, the hearing and preaching of the Word, prayer, sharing of the peace, sharing on the Supper of the Lord, and a poetic reading. All of these are intended to expand our understanding of the devotional life as multi-faceted and reflective of the particular life of faith of the individual Christian. It is not a “one size fits all” endeavor. Hopefully, all of these opportunities in both services throughout the two days will allow participants to experience a variety of contemplative and active practices for living the devotional life.
