Opening Versicles: Epiphany
L This is the day which the Lord has made;
C let us rejoice and be glad in it.
L From the rising of the sun to its setting,
C the name of the Lord is to be praised.
L Arise, shine, for your light has come;
C and the glory of the Lord has risen upon you.
L And nations shall come to your light;
C And kings to the brightness of your rising.
L For from the rising of the sun to its setting my name will be great among the nations, C and in every place incense will be offered to my name, and a pure offering.
L For my name will be great among the nations,
C says the Lord of hosts.
L From the rising of the sun to its setting,
C the name of the Lord is to be praised.
Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit; as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

Litany

Concluding Prayer Assembly Prays Together O God, from whom come all holy desires, all good counsels, and all just works, give to us, Your servants, that peace which the world cannot give, that our hearts may be set to obey Your commandments and also that we, being defended from the fear of our enemies, may live in peace and quietness; through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen. (Collect for Peace)

Servants of the Word
Rev. Mark Drengler Preacher
Seminarian Tyler Werner Liturgist
Kathleen Stahlhut Organist

Rev. Mark Drengler is pastor of Resurrection Lutheran Church in Cary, NC. He holds a BA in Psychology from Concordia College, St. Paul, and an MDiv from Concordia Seminary, St. Louis. He is currently a student in the D.Min. program at the seminary. He was born in Memphis, TN, but was raised most of his life on the shores of Lake Nokomis in northern Wisconsin. Pastor Drengler married his wife Elizabeth in 1989 and they have four children: Jacob, Christa, Micah, and Brennan.
He enjoys playing basketball, watching College basketball, anything about the Green Bay Packers and Wisconsin Badgers, fishing and hanging out with his family. When asked what he loves most about being a pastor, he says: “Being able to dig into the truth of God’s Word, and communicating that we are freed by the Good News of Jesus and are saved through faith in Him and being shaped by God’s Spirit to live lives of service.”
