*A book to help your laity face
the issues of Vatican II*

VATICAN II: RENEWAL OR REFORM?

By James G. Manz, pastor of First
St. Paul Lutheran Church, Chicago, Ill.

The world, even secularists, listened to Vatican II. But do your parishioners understand its meaning for the entire Christian community? This paperback gives you an honest Protestant overview of what pre-Council Rome was like, and a critique of how new Rome really is.

With Vatican II: Renewal or Reform? you can provide your parishioners with a basis for discussing the major documents of Vatican II as well as current movements within today's Roman Catholic Church. In concise, nontechnical terms, author Manz helps the general reader, confused by ecumenical clamor over Vatican II, understand both the hopes and the limitations of the Council.

old slogan "Nothing happened! Rome never changes!" For the layman who writes off the Council with the this book is a needed challenge. Here is a tool to stimulate parish alertness to Christ's voice speaking through the entire Christian community. Introduce it while Vatican II is a live issue.

Author James G. Manz speaks with insight about Vatican II from wide acquaintance with Roman Catholic church leaders in the archdiocese of Chicago. His active involvement in civic and metropolitan church affairs gives his book relevance for all Christians. He holds the Th. D. degree.

How do you relate to "other" Christians?

+ Grace Under Pressure

THE WAY OF OBEDIENCE AS THE ROAD TO UNITY

BY MARTIN H. FRANZMANN AND
F. DEAN LUEKING

Here is the Biblical groundwork that must precede and support any fruitful ecumenical stance in today's denominational ferment. In this book both authors write and live the theme "ecumenical meekness," not as something weak or contemptible but as "grace under pressure."

For those feeling their way toward ecumenical encounter, within or between parishes and church bodies, this book provides an open, positive stance. Dr. Franzmann outlines the Biblical basis for ecumenical meekness. Dr. Lueking demonstrates its application in the life of today's parish and church.
