Concluding Prayer

assembly prays together

Guide us, O Lord our God, and teach us to walk in Your paths of righteousness. Keep our lives in peace, and our ways pleasing in Your sight. Guide Your servants on their earthly and heavenly course along Your paths of purity unto Your only-begotten Son, our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, who became our prince of life and the hope of our salvation, with whom You are blessed, O Father Almighty, together with Your life-giving and liberating Holy Spirit, now and forever, unto the ages of ages. Amen. (Armenian Prayer of Guidance)

Notes on the Weekly Cycle of Chapel Services

A pattern of services has been established in order to provide regularity and a basis for locating services in the church's various cultural patterns.

Mondays Preaching Services using Responsive Prayer 1 and 2

Tuesdays Alternating weekly services of Matins and Morning Prayer, often without sermons, using the full services including the weekly Psalm Wednesdays Eucharist with texts for the following Sunday, hosted this year by Webster Gardens Lutheran Church, Webster Grove, Missouri and Pastors Joel Christianson (CTS 1985) and Brian King (CSL 2013).

Thursdays Unique Settings for Daily Prayer such as Taize, Lectio Divina, and Baptismal Remembrance
Thursdays include Communal Intercessory Prayers

Fridays Service of Prayer and Preaching

Why does the Liturgical Week begin on Wednesdays in the chapel?

As a seminary our focus is upon the formation of pastors, deaconesses, and church workers. Since many students are involved in resident field education and congregational life on Sundays transitioning the weekly calendar on Wednesdays assists students in preparing to engage the readings and themes for the coming Sunday in advance and allows us to reflect on those themes and readings in chapel on Mondays and Tuesdays.

Submitting Prayer Requests

Please submit prayer requests for weekly chapel services through Semnet.

The submission form can be found at <https://semnet.csl.edu/SelfService/csl/resources/CampusLife/Chapel/ChapelPrayerRequest.aspx>. Submitting the request through Semnet insures that all of the chapel staff are informed of the request and that it is included in the daily chapel services.
