Guide us, O Lord our God, and teach us to walk in Your paths of righteousness. Keep our lives in peace, and our ways pleasing in Your sight. Guide Your servants on their earthly and heavenly course along Your paths of purity unto Your only-begotten Son, our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, who became our prince of life and the hope of our salvation, with whom You are blessed, O Father Almighty, together with Your life-giving and liberating Holy Spirit, now and forever, unto the ages of ages. Amen. (Armenian Prayer of Guidance)

Joshua LeBorions is in his concluding year at Concordia Seminary. He says of himself: “I began my life in Modesto, CA and have since lived in Akron, OH; Tampa Bay, FL; Warner Robins, GA; Nashville, TN; St. Louis, MO; and Boca Raton, FL. One of my greatest accomplishments in all of those places has been properly using a semi-colon in the above list of cities and states. I graduated from Houston County High School in Warner Robins, the city I still call home in my heart, in 2013 and went on to double major in Educational Studies and Theoretical Mathematics and minor in Computer Science at Vanderbilt University. I have worked at Vanderbilt Campus Dining, Vanderbilt Office of Undergraduate Admissions, VandyRadio, Houston County Board of Education, Marco’s Pizza, Concordia Seminary Helpdesk, the Fieldhouse, and St. Paul Lutheran Church & School. I am a faithful Nashville Predators and Atlanta United fan, and follow the Indianapolis Colts when they’re exciting to watch. I grew up playing tennis but here at the Seminary, I joined the soccer team where I have met many of my closest friends and played in an indoor league nearby where I met my wife Christina. We went on vicarage to Boca Raton, FL and it was hard to come back – it’s much too cold here.”
