Hymn of Praise

All glo - ry be to God the Lord, Who sits en-throned on high.
Be - hold the Lamb of God who comes; 'Tis Je - sus Christ the Lord!

And peace on earth to eve - ry - one With fa - vor in His eye.
The wide world's sin you take a - way And mer - cy You out-pour.

An - ge - lic host pro-claim His worth Though born up-on the earth.
At God's right hand You have Your throne: The Ho - ly One a - lone.

To Him a - lone they sing their praise And lift their ho - ly cry.
We praise You and ack - now - ledge You, The One whom we a - dore.

Sanctus

Agnus Dei

Be - hold, the Lamb of God!

Be - hold, the Lamb of God!

He takes a - way the sins of the world.

Be - hold, the Lamb of God!

The musical score consists of four staves of music in a single system. Each staff begins with a treble clef and a common time signature. The lyrics are printed below the notes. The first two staves are identical. The third staff has a longer note for 'a' in 'a-way'. The fourth staff ends with a double bar line.

Nunc Dimittis (Song of Simeon)

Lord now let Your ser - vant go in peace.
You pre - pared sal - va - tion in our sight.

Lord now let Your ser - vant go in peace.
You pre - pared sal - va - tion in our sight.

For my eyes have gazed up - on Your sal - va - tion through Your Son,
It's a re - ve - la - tion light To the peo - ple of the world

All ac - cord - ing to Your ho - ly will.
And for glo - ry to Your Is - ra - el.

Let's give praise to God the Fa - ther!

Let's give praise to God His on - ly Son!

To the Spi - rit of our Lord, Let's give praise with one ac - cord.

So it's been and e - ver shall it be

From all time and to e - ter - ni - ty.

Concluding Prayer

Assembly Prays Together

O God the Father, the fountain and source of all goodness, who in loving-kindness sent Your only-begotten Son into the flesh, we thank You that for His sake You have given us pardon and peace in this Sacrament, and we ask You not to forsake Your children but always to rule our hearts and minds by Your Holy Spirit that we may be enabled constantly to serve You; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

In order to better appreciate certain aspects of the fallen state of humanity, Scott golfs.

In Preparation for Communion

To Our Guests:

The Lord's Supper is celebrated on our campus in the confession and glad confidence that our Lord, as He says, gives not only bread and wine, but His very body and blood to eat and drink for the forgiveness of sin. In joyful obedience to the clear teaching of our Lord Jesus those are invited to His table who trust His words, repent of all sin, and set aside any refusal to forgive and love as He forgives and loves us. They show forth His death until He comes. Because Holy Communion is a confession of the faith which is confessed at this altar, any who are not yet instructed, in doubt, or who hold a confession differing from that of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod and so are unable to receive the Sacrament are invited to meditate on God's Word in the distribution hymns and pray for the day when divisions will have ceased. -Kent J. Burreson, Dean of the Chapel

Notes Regarding Communion

- The campus Lord's Supper is sponsored and hosted by St. John Lutheran Church in Columbus, NE and Pastor Brad Birtell.
- When receiving the cup to partake of Christ Jesus' blood, please place your hand on the cup in some way to assist the server in guiding it to your mouth. Depending upon how those distributing the cup are holding it, you can either take hold of the cup at the base on the bottom OR on the stem of the chalice OR at the bowl itself on the upper part. By doing so you will assist the server and help to prevent any unwelcome spillage.
- The Reliquary (unconsecrated, additional bread) will be distributed after the service in the narthex if there is sufficient quantity. You are invited to take a piece with you.
- If you would prefer not to drink wine directly from the chalice, you may intinct the bread by dipping it into the chalice.
- If you have a gluten allergy or any other special need, please contact Dean of the Chapel Kent Burreson.
- The concluding prayers are spoken by the assembly in the hope that these traditional collects might become part of your remembered repertoire of prayer

Private Confession and Absolution

Chaplain Sieveking will offer confession and absolution in the Chapel of St. Eunice and St. Lois from 12:00-1:00 pm on Thursday.

Jazz Liturgy

During his vicarage at St. Paul's in Des Peres, MO, Seminarian James Miller wrote this jazz setting of the Divine Service as part of his church's partnership with St. Paul's of College Hill, a neighborhood in north St. Louis. College Hill is a predominantly poor, African-American community, and this partnership seeks to engage the residents in new ways to show them the love of Christ. Because the melodies and harmonies of Baroque-era music commonly used in church may be too foreign to the residents of College Hill, James wanted to write a new setting using familiar jazz motifs that would be more accessible to their ears and tongues while keeping the rich tradition of the Liturgy. James also hopes that this new setting conveys the joy inherent in encountering God in the Divine Service.
