SERVANTS OF THE WORD

2nd-year Seminarian Andrew Thompson

Liturgist

Rev. W. Max Mons

Preacher

Director of Musical Arts James Marriott

Organist

Rev. W. Max Mons serves as pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Chapel and University Center, the LCMS campus ministry to the University of Iowa. He also serves as the First Vice President of Iowa District East and the Vice Chairman of the CSL Board of Regents. He is a 1996 (MDiv) and 2005 (STM) graduate of Concordia Seminary, St. Louis.

Life Thought for Pentecost 16 – The rich man knew Lazarus's name (Luke 16:24) but refused to treat him as a human being (Luke 16:19-21). Categorizing Lazarus as a nonentity enabled him to “feast sumptuously.” When we neglect to speak for the unborn or the elderly, when we avoid getting involved in their survival, we join the rich man's callous carousing. But when we embrace them with our voices and our service, we take our place beside Abraham in heaven's festivities.
