Concluding Prayer

assembly prays together

Guide us, O Lord our God, and teach us to walk in Your paths of righteousness. Keep our lives in peace, and our ways pleasing in Your sight. Guide Your servants on their earthly and heavenly course along Your paths of purity unto Your only-begotten Son, our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, who became our prince of life and the hope of our salvation, with whom You are blessed, O Father Almighty, together with Your life-giving and liberating Holy Spirit, now and forever, unto the ages of ages. Amen. (Armenian Prayer of Guidance)

Life Thought for Pentecost 20 – The Lord swore to defend and avenge Cain though he had killed (Genesis 4:15). Our Almighty Maker wraps His tender mercy (Luke 18:13-14) even around those who have taken life. The Lamb of God also sacrificed His life and shed His blood to release from sin anyone who has participated in abortion or advocated assisted suicide. Only this same repentance and forgiveness will save even For Life voices who find ourselves superior to them.

Chaplain Craig Muehler, a retired U.S. Navy captain, serves as the director of the LCMS Ministry to the Armed Forces, beginning in August 2014 after he retired as deputy chaplain of the U.S. Marine. As director, he is the chief liaison to the more than 160 LCMS chaplains serving in all branches of the military active and reserve, and the Civil Air Patrol. A native of Springfield, Ill., Muehler grew up in South Dakota and Missouri. He received his bachelor's degree from Concordia University Chicago in 1984 and his Master of Divinity from Concordia Seminary in 1988. He earned his Master of Theology in Pastoral Counseling from Trinity International University in Deerfield, Ill., in 2001. In 1986, he was commissioned as an ensign in the U.S. Navy theological student program and attended the Naval Chaplaincy School and Center. After ordination in 1988, he entered the Navy Chaplain Corps, serving as a chaplain in the reserve while also pastoring St. John's Lutheran Church, McClusky, N.D. In addition to numerous venues of service, Chaplain Muehler deployed in support of "Operation Iraqi Freedom" and "Operation Secure Tomorrow." Muehler's decorations include the Legion of Merit (two) and numerous other awards. Muehler and his wife, Kristen, have four children: Seth, Jesse, Faith and Hope.

Since the Civil War, LCMS pastors have served as military chaplains. Today, the Ministry to the Armed Forces supports 173 chaplains: 70 active duty LCMS chaplains, 80 Reserve and National Guard unit chaplains, with six serving on deployments in harm's way, and 23 Civil Air Patrol chaplains. The LCMS Ministry to the Armed Forces recruits, endorses, and sustains a vibrant and ready military chaplaincy to bring hope, healing, and grace through the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ to those who serve our nation in peace and in war.
