The assembly is invited to sing these stanzas in harmony

Commemoration of the Faithful Departed

P: I heard a voice from heaven saying, “Write this: Blessed are the dead who die in the lord henceforth” “Blessed indeed,” says the Spirit, “that they may rest from their labors, for their deeds follow them” (Rev. 14:13).

P: Let us remember with thanksgiving those who have gone before us with the sign of faith, for they were created by God to offer Him praise and thanksgiving forever. He gave them new life through His Son in Holy Baptism and nourished them in the company of His people at His holy table. In His mercy He has summoned them to His nearer presence to await the resurrection of all flesh and the entrance into the new heaven and the new earth where they will continue in joyful service of Him forever.

Now are read the names of those from and directly connected to this seminary community who have died since the previous All Saints' Day. Bells will be rung and a brief silence will follow after each name is read to reflect upon the promises of God granted to the saints through their baptism into Christ.

P: In joyful expectation of the resurrection to life, we remember before You, O Lord, in our hearts and minds all our departed family and friends who have gone before us in faith.

Jesus, Remember MeLSB 767

The assembly sings the prayer continuously as the names of family and friends of the seminary community who have died are read. As the names are read, worshipers may come forward to one of three stations, one in the middle aisle and one at each side aisle, to light candles in remembrance and thanksgiving for any saints, living or dead. Proceed down the aisle closest to you. The assembly may stand both in front of and behind the table, using all three bowls on the table. Please light your candle from any of the other candles in the bowl. Once all the names have been read, the assembly is invited to speak aloud the names of all those they are remembering this day. After the service you are invited to take your candle with you.

L: Let us pray...Lord, remember your church throughout the world; make all its members grow in love for You and for one another. As You have received our brothers and sisters who have gone to their rest in the hope of the resurrection to eternal life, bring us at the last with them into the light of your presence, that in union with all Your saints we may give You glory forever, through Your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

C: Amen.

The assembly will sing the refrain in Spanish and the stanzas in English.

The Lord's Supper will be distributed at six stations, instead of the altar rails, on each side of the chancel, two on the chancel level, two on the nave floor, and one in each transept. Please proceed to whichever station is available on your side as you approach the altar.

Communion Music

This is the Feast, African American

The refrain is sung by the cantor. The assembly then repeats the refrain. The cantor sings the verses of the canticle and the assembly sings the refrain as noted.

This is the feast of victory for our God. Alleluia.

This is the feast of victory for our God. Alleluia.

Worthy is Christ, the Lamb who was slain, whose blood set us free to be people of God. Power, riches, wisdom and strength and honor, blessing and glory are His.

This is the feast of victory for our God. Alleluia. (x2)

Sing with all the people of God and join in the hymn of all creation:

Blessing, honor, glory, and might be to God and the Lamb forever. Amen.

This is the feast of victory for our God. Alleluia. (x2)

The Servants of the Word

Presider: Dean of the Chapel Kent Burreson

Preacher: 4th-year Seminarian Chad Biar

Assistants: Chaplain Paul Sieveking, Seminaricians Nils Niemeier,
Ian Heinze, Jacob Sipes, Hayden Brown

Organist: Director of Musical Arts James Marriott

Seminarian Chad Biar originally hails from the Phoenix area and has returned from his vicarage in East Moline -- one of the five Quad Cities. He plans to take a call at the end of this academic year, marry his wonderful fiancée Magdalena Teske, and figure out how to move her four cats to wherever God sends them. When he had free time before coming to the seminary, he collected obscure hobbies and even more obscure facts.

In Preparation for Communion

To Our Guests:

The Lord's Supper is celebrated on our campus in the confession and glad confidence that our Lord, as He says, gives not only bread and wine, but His very body and blood to eat and drink for the forgiveness of sin. In joyful obedience to the clear teaching of our Lord Jesus those are invited to His table who trust His words, repent of all sin, and set aside any refusal to forgive and love as He forgives and loves us. They show forth His death until He comes. Because Holy Communion is a confession of the faith which is confessed at this altar, any who are not yet instructed, in doubt, or who hold a confession differing from that of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod and so are unable to receive the Sacrament are invited to meditate on God's Word in the distribution hymns and pray for the day when divisions will have ceased. -Kent J. Burreson, Dean of the Chapel

Notes Regarding Communion

- The campus Lord's Supper is sponsored and hosted by the The Lutheran Church of Webster Gardens and Pastors Joel Christiansen and Brian King.
- The bread was baked by Nils Niemeier.
- The Chapel's Red Wine is from Montelle Winery, Augusta, Missouri and the White Wine is from Blumenhof Winery, Dutzow, Missouri.
- When receiving the cup to partake of Christ Jesus' blood, please place your hand on the cup in some way to assist the server in guiding it to your mouth. Depending upon how those distributing the cup are holding it, you can either take hold of the cup at the base on the bottom OR on the stem of the chalice OR at the bowl itself on the upper part. By doing so you will assist the server and help to prevent any unwelcome spillage.
- The Reliquary (unconsecrated, additional bread) will be distributed after the service in the narthex if there is sufficient quantity. You are invited to take a piece with you.
- If illness or other extenuating circumstances lead you not to drink wine directly from the chalice, you may intinct the bread by dipping it into the chalice.

Private Confession and Absolution

Contact Chaplain Sieveking to arrange for confession and absolution.
