Commemoration of the Faithful Departed

P: I heard a voice from heaven saying, “Write this: Blessed are the dead who die in the lord henceforth” “Blessed indeed,” says the Spirit, “that they may rest from their labors, for their deeds follow them” (Rev. 14:13).

P: Let us remember with thanksgiving those who have gone before us with the sign of faith, for they were created by God to offer Him praise and thanksgiving forever. He gave them new life through His Son in Holy Baptism and nourished them in the company of His people at His holy table. In His mercy He has summoned them to His nearer presence to await the resurrection of all flesh and the entrance into the new heaven and the new earth where they will continue in joyful service of Him forever.

Now are read the names of those from and directly connected to this seminary community who have died since the previous All Saints' Day. Bells will be rung and a brief silence will follow after each name is read to reflect upon the promises of God granted to the saints through their baptism into Christ.

Jesus, Remember Me

LSB 767

The assembly sings the prayer continuously as the names of family and friends of the seminary community who have died are read. As the names are read, worshipers may come forward to one of three stations, one in the middle aisle and one at each side aisle, to light candles in remembrance and thanksgiving for any saints, living or dead. Proceed down the aisle closest to you. The assembly may stand both in front of and behind the table, using all three bowls on the table. Please light your candle from any of the other candles in the bowl. Once all the names have been read, the assembly is invited to speak aloud the names of all those they are remembering this day. After the service you are invited to take your candle with you.

L: Let us pray...Lord, remember your church throughout the world; make all its members grow in love for You and for one another. As You have received our brothers and sisters who have gone to their rest in the hope of the resurrection to eternal life, bring us at the last with them into the light of your presence, that in union with all Your saints we may give You glory forever, through Your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

C: Amen.

The Servants of the Word

President: Dean of the Chapel Kent Burreson

Preacher: Professor Joel Biermann

Assistants: Chaplain Paul Sieveking, Sacristan Nathaniel Brown, Thurifer Kyle Ronchetto, Seminarians Mason Vieth, Brendan Harrell, Will Fredstrom, Thomas Gustafson, Kurt Hellwig, Michael Wilke, Álvaro Witt Duarte, Tim Evans, and Andrew Thompson

Organist: Jim Marriott

In Preparation for Communion

To Our Guests:

The Lord's Supper is celebrated on our campus in the confession and glad confidence that our Lord, as He says, gives not only bread and wine, but His very body and blood to eat and drink for the forgiveness of sin. In joyful obedience to the clear teaching of our Lord Jesus those are invited to His table who trust His words, repent of all sin, and set aside any refusal to forgive and love as He forgives and loves us. They show forth His death until He comes. Because Holy Communion is a confession of the faith which is confessed at this altar, any who are not yet instructed, in doubt, or who hold a confession differing from that of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod and so are unable to receive the Sacrament are invited to meditate on God's Word in the distribution hymns and pray for the day when divisions will have ceased.

-Kent J. Burreson, Dean of the Chapel

Notes Regarding Communion

- The campus Lord's Supper is sponsored and hosted by the Lutheran Church of St. Andrew and Pastors Mark Hricko and Steve Miller of Silver Spring, Maryland.
- The bread was baked by Debbie Gates
- When receiving the cup to partake of Christ Jesus' blood, please place your hand on the cup in some way to assist the server in guiding it to your mouth. Depending upon how those distributing the cup are holding it, you can either take hold of the cup at the base on the bottom OR on the stem of the chalice OR at the bowl itself on the upper part. By doing so you will assist the server and help to prevent any unwelcome spillage.
- The Reliquary (unconsecrated, additional bread) will be distributed after the service in the narthex if there is sufficient quantity. You are invited to take a piece with you.

- If you would prefer not to drink wine directly from the chalice, you may intinct the bread by dipping it into the chalice.
- If you have a gluten allergy or any other special need, please contact Dean of the Chapel Kent Burreson.

The Maranatha

The Maranatha (1 Corinthians 16:22), a translated phrase in Greek of an Aramaic expression similar to “Hosanna” or “Alleluia,” probably is best translated “Our Lord, Come!” (See also Revelation 22:20, Come, Lord Jesus!) It is an insistent plea for the Christ Jesus’ coming on the great day of the Lord. It was probably used as a liturgical phrase in early Christian worship. In the same pattern we will use it on Wednesdays from All Saints’ Day through the end of the church year and every day throughout Advent as a prayer of fervent expectancy and longing for the coming of our Lord.
