Concluding Prayer

assembly prays together

Guide us, O Lord our God, and teach us to walk in Your paths of righteousness. Keep our lives in peace, and our ways pleasing in Your sight. Guide Your servants on their earthly and heavenly course along Your paths of purity unto Your only-begotten Son, our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, who became our prince of life and the hope of our salvation, with whom You are blessed, O Father Almighty, together with Your life-giving and liberating Holy Spirit, now and forever, unto the ages of ages. Amen. (Armenian Prayer of Guidance)

SERVANTS OF THE WORD

Rev. Dr. Greg Seltz

2nd-year RAR Seminarian Nathan Speerbrecher

Graduate student Gregory Moffitt

Preacher

Liturgist

Organist

The Rev. Dr. Gregory Seltz serves as the Executive Director of the Lutheran Center for Religious Liberty, an organization that strives to be a resource for our Churches, Universities, Schools and Pre-schools to empower them as voices in the public square for the Gospel and for the sake of the communities which they serve, as well as encouraging people of faith already serving in D.C. on behalf of God's people. Seltz is also Speaker of The Lutheran Hour®, emeritus, a position he held full-time from February 2011 – July, 2017. Before joining Lutheran Hour Ministries, Seltz served as the Director of the Cross-Cultural Ministry Center, as well as professor of Theology at Concordia University in Irvine, California. He went to Concordia in 2000 to oversee the master's program in Theology and Culture. Prior to his work at Concordia, Seltz was the Executive Director of Life's Journey Ministries, an urban, not-for-profit evangelism ministry in Manhattan, New York. He was also the founding pastor of the first new Lutheran mission start in New York City in more than 40 years (Church For All Nations-LCMS), started a mission church in Dallas, and served as pastor of a large congregation in Tampa. Seltz holds a bachelor's degree from Concordia University in Ann Arbor, Michigan, a M.Div. degree, a STM degree in Systematics, and a PhD in Theology and Culture from Concordia Seminary, St. Louis. He and his wife, Marie Yvette, have one daughter, Devin.
