Concluding Prayer

assembly prays together

Guide us, O Lord our God, and teach us to walk in Your paths of righteousness. Keep our lives in peace, and our ways pleasing in Your sight. Guide Your servants on their earthly and heavenly course along Your paths of purity unto Your only-begotten Son, our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, who became our prince of life and the hope of our salvation, with whom You are blessed, O Father Almighty, together with Your life-giving and liberating Holy Spirit, now and forever, unto the ages of ages. Amen. (Armenian Prayer of Guidance)

SERVANTS OF THE WORD

Rev. Dr. William Utech

Preacher

Benjamin Akers, 4th-year Seminarian

Liturgist

Mr. Justin Knabach

Organist

Minister of Music and Worship,

Lutheran Church of the Resurrection, St. Louis, MO

William G. Utech, M.Div., S.T.M., D. Min., is Assistant to the District President for Missions in the Minnesota South District of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod. In this position he works with pastors and congregations to plant new churches and begin new Gospel ministries that will introduce un-churched people to the person and work of Jesus. He encourages and promotes creative and new approaches to evangelism and outreach, and he facilitates the assessment and training of future church planters. Prior to his current position he served for 17 years as a member of the faculty of Concordia Seminary. William lives in rural Minnesota with his wife, Lori, two dogs, and a cat. They are parents of two adult daughters, Annmarie Wallis and Claire Wellhousen.

The nativity and Christmas trees will remain until the Feast of the Purification of Mary and the Presentation of Our Lord this Saturday. They will make their journey into the world (aka. storage) after chapel on Monday. While the world tends to let go of Christmas and Epiphany quickly, this has allowed us to bask in the light of the incarnation and manifestation of Christ Jesus a little longer, culminating in the feast day associated with the final story in the cycle of stories associated with his appearance as an infant.
