Seminarian Andy Johnson was born and raised in Nebraska. As a Husker fan, he continues to be tormented with the disappointment that has become Nebraska football. Andy and his wife, Kara, met in college at Concordia University – Nebraska where they both majored in graphic design. They recently celebrated their ninth anniversary and are blessed with three wonderful children: Koen, Kaelyn, and Kollins. In his limited free time, Andy enjoys sports, design, and being with family. After serving as vicar in Fort Worth, Texas, he has come to appreciate the comfort of a good pair of cowboy boots.
