Guide us, O Lord our God, and teach us to walk in Your paths of righteousness. Keep our lives in peace, and our ways pleasing in Your sight. Guide Your servants on their earthly and heavenly course along Your paths of purity unto Your only-begotten Son, our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, who became our prince of life and the hope of our salvation, with whom You are blessed, O Father Almighty, together with Your life-giving and liberating Holy Spirit, now and forever, unto the ages of ages. Amen. (Armenian Prayer of Guidance)

The Rev. Dr. Matthew C. Harrison is the 13th person to serve as president of the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod (LCMS). Before becoming president, Harrison served for nine years as the executive director of LCMS World Relief and Human Care. A native of Sioux City, Iowa, Harrison was baptized in a small, rural Lutheran church and raised in a large suburban congregation. He served as a parish pastor at St. Peter's Lutheran Church in Westgate, Iowa, (1991-1995) and Zion Lutheran Church in Fort Wayne, Ind. (1995-2001). He graduated with a bachelor's degree in religious studies from Morningside College in Sioux City, Iowa. Harrison earned a Master of Divinity degree in 1989 and a Master of Sacred Theology degree in 1991 from Concordia Theological Seminary, Fort Wayne, Indiana, and has pursued additional graduate study at Concordia Seminary, St. Louis. In 2011, Harrison received two honorary doctorates from Concordia University, Ann Arbor, Michigan and from Concordia, Fort Wayne. Harrison has authored, edited and translated numerous articles and several books, including two volumes titled The Lonely Way: Selected Essays and Letters by Hermann Sasse (Concordia Publishing House). Harrison and his wife live in Ballwin, Mo., and are members of Village Lutheran Church in Ladue, Mo., where he also serves as assistant pastor. They have two sons. Harrison is an avid bluegrass banjo player and builder of guitars, banjos and mandolins.
