Weather permitting the Procession of Palms will commence at the beginning of the sidewalk path through Concordia Park on DeMun at 9:20 am. C Amen.

P Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord.

C Hosanna to the Son of David.

P Let us pray... Most merciful God, as the people of Jerusalem, with palms in their hands, gathered to greet Your dearly beloved Son when He came into His Holy City, grant that we may ever hail Him as our King and, when He comes again, may go forth to meet Him with trusting and steadfast hearts and follow Him in the way that leads to eternal life; through the same Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C Amen.

P The Holy Gospel according to St. John, the twelfth chapter.

C Glory to You, O Lord.

Prayers of the Church: Litany of the Passion

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Christ, have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

O God the Father in heaven:

Have mercy upon us.

O God the Son, Redeemer of the world:

Have mercy upon us.

O God the Holy Spirit:

Have mercy upon us.

Jesus, Son of the living God:

Have mercy upon us.

From all evil:

O Jesus, deliver us.

From sudden, unprepared, or evil death;

From the snares of the devil;

From anger, hatred, or ill-will;

From everlasting death:

O Jesus, deliver us.

By the mystery of Your incarnation;

By Your most holy life and conversation;

By Your most bitter Passion and death;

By Your agony and bloody sweat;

By Your thrice-repeated prayer;

By Your bonds and stripes;

By Your sacred body stricken and smitten;

By the spitting upon Your adorable face;

By the false judgment pronounced on You by Caiaphas;

By Your useless dispatch to Herod;

By the shameful stripping off of Your garments;

By Your painful crown of thorns;

By Your purple robe of mockery;
By Your most unjust condemnation;
By Your bearing Your own cross;
By Your footprints to the place of death;
By the tearing off of Your garments;
By the cruel straining of Your sacred limbs;
By Your dread crucifixion;
By the upraising of Your cross;
By the anguish which You suffered;
By Your prayers and tears
By the insults which You endured;
By the shedding of Your most precious blood;
By Your patience and humility;
By the love with which You loved us to the end:

O Jesus, deliver us.

We sinners implore You to hear us:

O most loving Jesus.

That being dead unto sin, we may live unto righteousness;
That we may not glory save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ;
That we may take our cross daily and follow You;
That Your blood may cleanse us from dead works to serve the living God;
That looking to Your example, we may follow Your steps;
That being partakers of Your sufferings, we may also partake of Your glory:

We implore You to hear us, O Jesus.

O Lamb of God, that takes away the sin of the world:

Have mercy upon us.

O Lamb of God, that takes away the sin of the world:

Have mercy upon us.

O Lamb of God, that takes away the sin of the world:

Grant us Your peace.

We adore You, we bless You, O Jesus:

Because by Your cross and Passion You have redeemed the world. Amen.

Post-Communion Collect

Prayed by Assembly

O Lord and Master of our lives, give us not a spirit of idleness, despondency, ambition, and vain talking, but rather bestow on us, your servants, a spirit of purity, humility, patience, and love. Yes, Lord and King, grant us to see our own faults, and not to judge our brothers and our sisters. For blessed are You unto the ages of ages. Amen. (St. Ephraim the Syrian)

In Preparation for Communion

To Our Guests:

The Lord's Supper is celebrated on our campus in the confession and glad confidence that our Lord, as He says, gives not only bread and wine, but His very body and blood to eat and drink for the forgiveness of sin. In joyful obedience to the clear teaching of our Lord Jesus those are invited to His table who trust His words, repent of all sin, and set aside any refusal to forgive and love as He forgives and loves us. They show forth His death until He comes. Because Holy Communion is a confession of the faith which is confessed at this altar, any who are not yet instructed, in doubt, or who hold a confession differing from that of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod and so are unable to receive the Sacrament are invited to meditate on God's Word in the distribution hymns and pray for the day when divisions will have ceased. -Kent J. Burreson, Dean of the Chapel

Notes Regarding Communion

- The campus Lord's Supper is sponsored and hosted by the Lutheran Church of St. Andrew and Pastor Mark Hricko of Silver Spring, Maryland.
- The bread was baked by Beth Hoeltke.
- When receiving the cup to partake of Christ Jesus' blood, please place your hand on the cup in some way to assist the server in guiding it to your mouth. Depending upon how those distributing the cup are holding it, you can either take hold of the cup at the base on the bottom OR on the stem of the chalice OR at the bowl itself on the upper part. By doing so you will assist the server and help to prevent any unwelcome spillage.
- The Reliquary (unconsecrated, additional bread) will be distributed after the service in the narthex if there is sufficient quantity. You are invited to take a piece with you.
- If illness leads you not to drink wine directly from the chalice, you may intinct the bread by dipping it into the chalice.
- If you have a gluten allergy or any other special need, please contact Dean of the Chapel Kent Burreson.

Private Confession and Absolution
