The Lord’s Supper will be distributed at the altar rails in a continuous flow. Both pulpit and lectern sides will come forward at the same time. Beginning at the center of the rail, please take the next available place at the rail, moving around to the wall behind the altar, allowing for space between you and others as you are comfortable. Both the chalice (cleansed with alcohol-soaked purificators) and individual cups are available. After communing, please return to your seat by the side aisles.

In Preparation for Communion

The Lord's Supper is celebrated on our campus in the confession and glad confidence that our Lord Jesus, as He says, gives His very body and blood under the bread and wine for us Christians to eat and drink for the forgiveness of sin. In joyful obedience to the clear teaching of our Lord, those are invited to His table who trust His words, repent of all sin, set aside any refusal to forgive, and forgive as He forgives us. Because Holy Communion is a confession of the faith which is confessed at this altar, any who are not yet instructed, in doubt, or who hold a confession differing from that of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod, and so are unable to receive the Sacrament, are invited to meditate on God's Word in the distribution hymns and pray for the day when divisions will have ceased.

Notes Regarding Communion

The campus Lord's Supper is sponsored and hosted by Hope Lutheran Church, St. Louis, and Pastor Randy Asbury.

Private Confession and Absolution

Contact Chaplain Sieveking to arrange for confession and absolution.

“[T]he text tells us that Christ slept in the ship. The Lord was not pretending, but rather was sleeping a true natural sleep. As the Gospel relates how Jesus slept in the ship, it seeks to portray Jesus as a true natural man who had body and soul and who required food and drink, sleep and other natural functions, the same as we, but always without sin. This keeps us from succumbing to the crazy notion that Christ was merely an apparition, not a true man.” (Martin Luther, House Postils, vol. 1, p. 261).
