In Preparation for Communion

The Lord's Supper is celebrated on our campus in the confession and glad confidence that our Lord Jesus, as He says, gives His very body and blood under the bread and wine for us Christians to eat and drink for the forgiveness of sin. In joyful obedience to the clear teaching of our Lord, those are invited to His table who trust His words, repent of all sin, set aside any refusal to forgive, and forgive as He forgives us. Because Holy Communion is a confession of the faith which is confessed at this altar, any who are not yet instructed, in doubt, or who hold a confession differing from that of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod, and so are unable to receive the Sacrament, are invited to meditate on God's Word in the distribution hymns and pray for the day when divisions will have ceased.

Notes Regarding Communion

The campus Lord's Supper is sponsored and hosted by Hope Lutheran Church, St. Louis, and Pastor Randy Asbury.

“Faith in Christ produces such great changes in heaven and on earth because it turns God’s wrath into God’s grace. It delivers the sinner from hell and opens heaven. It makes him holy before God. It creates in man a new heart and fills him with the Holy Spirit, with His comfort, with His joy, with His peace, with His power, with His certainty. Faith seizes and appropriates to itself the Word of Christ and with this garment Christ Himself” (C. F. W. Walther, Gospel Sermons, vol. 2, p. 215).
