In Preparation for Communion

The Lord's Supper is celebrated on our campus in the confession and glad confidence that our Lord Jesus, as He says, gives His very body and blood under the bread and wine for us Christians to eat and drink for the forgiveness of sin. In joyful obedience to the clear teaching of our Lord, those are invited to His table who trust His words, repent of all sin, set aside any refusal to forgive, and forgive as He forgives us. Because Holy Communion is a confession of the faith which is confessed at this altar, any who are not yet instructed, in doubt, or who hold a confession differing from that of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod, and so are unable to receive the Sacrament, are invited to meditate on God's Word in the distribution hymns and pray for the day when divisions will have ceased.

Notes Regarding Communion

The campus Lord's Supper is sponsored and hosted by Hope Lutheran Church, St. Louis, and Pastor Randy Asbury.

Private Confession and Absolution

“[We] must pay close attention to John’s finger pointing, his word and preaching, while they are available, as the prophet Isaiah states (55:6): ‘Seek ye the Lord while he may be found’; (49:8): ‘In an acceptable time have I heard thee, and in a day of salvation have I helped thee.’ Now is the time of grace, the day of salvation, of help and salvation (2 Cor. 6:2).... To have Christ in our midst with John’s preaching and his pointing to Christ is a great treasure. For this reason we must be forewarned, careful to hold onto this treasure.” (Martin Luther, House Postils, vol. 1, p. 75).
