Reading

Zechariah 8:1–8 (in Hmong and English)

And the word of the Lord of hosts came, saying, “Thus says the Lord of hosts: I am jealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I am jealous for her with great wrath. Thus says the Lord: I have returned to Zion and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem, and Jerusalem shall be called the faithful city, and the mountain of the Lord of hosts, the holy mountain. Thus says the Lord of hosts: Old men and old women shall again sit in the streets of Jerusalem, each with staff in hand because of great age. And the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing in its streets. Thus says the Lord of hosts: If it is marvelous in the sight of the remnant of this people in those days, should it also be marvelous in my sight, declares the Lord of hosts? Thus says the Lord of hosts: Behold, I will save my people from the east country and from the west country, and I will bring them to dwell in the midst of Jerusalem. And they shall be my people, and I will be their God, in faithfulness and in righteousness.” (ESV)

L This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

Prayers

L For the Church here and throughout the world, especially our persecuted brothers and sisters in Christ, that all trust in the mercy of the Lord and confess Christ’s saving work, let us pray to the Lord,

C Lord, have mercy.

L For our seminaries, colleges, universities, high schools, elementary schools, preschools, and Sunday schools of the Church that those who teach and those who learn may grow in faith in Christ, let us pray to the Lord,

C Christ, have mercy.

L For the nations and all in authority over us, that they be protected from all harm and serve with wisdom, peace and care, let us pray to the Lord,

C Lord, have mercy.

L For the ill and injured of body and mind, especially Ellory, Jacob, Abjar, Arthur (others). . . that they may thrive in Christ and receive healing according to the Lord’s will, let us pray to the Lord,

C Christ, have mercy.

L For those who minister and serve the lonely, the hungry, the hurried, the homeless, the hurting, the lost, the immigrant, the unemployed, that our Lord would meet their daily needs, deliver daily forgiveness, restoration and hope to all city dwellers, and deepen and strengthen their walk of faith with Christ, let us pray to the Lord,

C Lord, have mercy.

L For our deliverance from false trust in wealth, success, and material goods, and that our heavenly Father would instead fix our hearts fully on His eternal goodness, mercy, and provision, let us pray to the Lord,

C Lord, have mercy.

L Almighty God, You have given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplication to You; and You have promised through Your most beloved Son that when two or three are gathered together in His Name You will be in the midst of them.

C Fulfill now, O Lord, these desires and petitions as may be best for us; granting us in this world knowledge of Your truth, and in the age to come life everlasting; through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

(Collect attributed to St. John Chrysostom)
